Friends and Family Membership Application Form

Definition: "Friends & family" package is a promotional program that allows non-Full members to nominate up to 10 of their friends and family members to become guest members at a substantially reduced cost, with the limitation that they may only access the GQ facility if the guest who nominated them is present, for a period of one year.

There are 3 packages under this: 1 - person package allows you to nominate three persons for friends & family guest memberships, and grants access to the GQ to one of the three at any point in time; 2-person package allows you to nominate six persons for friends and family guests memberships, and grants access to the GQ to two of the six at any point in time; while 3-person package allows you to nominate ten persons for friends and family guests memberships, and grants access to the GQ to three of the ten at any point in time .

You will be required to pay an admin fee as follows:

- 1 - person package - $200
- 2 - person package - $400
- 3 - person package - $600

You also have the privilege of changing this list twice in a year with the payment of $20 admin fee for each name change.
