

THANKSGIVING

Greetings GQ Members,

November signals a changing of the season, transitioning from rainy season to dry season. Football season is in full swing and our team is gearing up for a wonderful lineup of activities for your enjoyment. Be sure to attend as many of the GQ offerings as you can.

On November 22, we will be hosting a Bollywood night with dance, music, and Indian buffet so get ready to taste all the delicious dishes then groove on to some of the most popular Bollywood tracks and show us your amazing moves on the dance floor... This event is open to all members and guests with dress code being dress to impress!!!

On November 23, join us for a free BBQ as we show you how much we appreciate your patronage and support. There will be live music, local vendors, and food fresh off the grill. We hope to see everyone there for some fun and delicious food!

Don't feel like cooking on Thanksgiving? Bring the family to our Thanksgiving dinner on Thursday, November 28. We'll have turkey and ham on the carving station and lots of delicious items to tempt your palate. And the best news is we do the clean-up! A portion of proceeds will go to American Women Club's charity fund. So join us to help the people in need this holiday season!

And this year, we will have a special Black Friday sale with 30% off all items on our regular menu. Come and find yourself the best deal of the year!

As always, we close with a request to let us know how we're doing. If there are programs or events, you'd like to see us try, please let us know. If we are missing the mark on something, please let us know. And if a team member goes above and beyond the call of duty, please let us know.

The GQ team wishes all of you a wonderful Thanksgiving filled with delicious food and surrounded by friends and family. For those traveling, please do so safely. And if you can't be with your family this Thanksgiving, please come and visit your GQ family. We'll be sure to take care of you!
